2. Other Activities:

A. Intelligence Orientation

- 1. The second week of IO #16 dealing with the Collection, Support and Operations phases began on 2 December.
- 2. Because of recent Soviet developments, several lecturers in IO have revised their presentations.

 OSI speaker, presented to the class some of the charts which had been used by the DCI in briefing the special Congressional investigating committee.

 Lecturers from ORR and the National Indications Center have also revised their presentations.
- 3. The training manual, The National Intelligence Process, developed by the IO staff has been printed and distributed to the students in the current IO course.
- 4. Before the presentation of the film "Forbidden Area" briefed the students on the major points of interest in the film such as:
 - a. the similarity between the Planning Group in the film and the IAC Watch Committee 25X1
 - b. intelligence "blocks" which sometimes occur
- c. methods and elements of tradecraft such as penetration, cover and sabotage.
 This innovation apparently increased the value of the film considerably as a training aid.
- 5. On learning that the majority of the students in the present course were from the DDS offices, A/D,OBI, complimented these components on the quality of the Support Exhibit which he had visited and which he heartily approved.
